at as early a point in his life as possible. The account will provide the individual with a unique IRA number that will stay with the individual through life. The individual would save and accumulate assets into this account in his working life, subject to a minimum of Rs. 100 per contribution and Rs. 500 in total accretions per year. Individuals would be free to decide the frequency of accretions into their accounts; there will be no pressure to make a fixed monthly contribution. The account would stay with the individual across job changes, spells of unemployment, and can be accessed at any location in India. The individual would always have access to an account balance statement showing his assets. All through, the individual would be empowered in having control of how his accumulated assets should be managed. Finally, upon retirement, the individual would be able to use his accumulated assets to buy annuities from annuity providers, and obtain a monthly income.

(iii) In this entire process, a sound regulatory framework is required to provide individuals an umbrella of safety. The OASIS Expert Committee has accordingly recommended that a new Authority be commissioned in order to perform a variety of important roles in the institutional arrangements of the old age income security sector.

Mass Suicide by Four Sisters in Bhilai

†4499. SHRI JHUMUK LAL BHENDIA : Will the Minister of SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT be pleased to state :

(a) whether it is a fact that four real sisters had committed mass suicide in steel-making city Bhilai because their parents had performed inter-caste marriage and these four sisters were obsessed with social frustration due to not getting married and society not accepted them;

(b) whether there is any scheme regarding creating social awareness and promoting intercaste marriage so that this is socially recognized; and

(c) whether any grant is given to recognized organizations for the said work ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT (SHRIMATI MANEKA GANDHI): (a) It is a fact
